MEET OUR FOUNDER

MoneyPit Trading Academy was founded by Ahmed Shamoon with a vision of creating a supportive environment for aspiring traders.

Trading isn't just about charts and numbers; it's about mastering your mindset, building connections, and making informed decisions together. At Moneypit, we trade to grow, learn, and succeed—together.

— Ahmed Shaheen

Our mission at Moneypit Trading Academy is to empower this generation with the knowledge and skills they need to navigate the real world, achieve independence, and earn money the right way. We strive to bridge the gap between students and teachers by offering a fresh, practical approach to learning.

Our vision is to transform trading education by not only teaching strategies but also creating an environment where traders can connect, learn from each other, and thrive. With innovative spaces like our trading café and comprehensive courses, we aim to build a legacy of ethical trading, meaningful relationships, and transformative success.

This is just the beginning of our journey, and we're dedicated to helping every trader take their first steps toward a brighter financial future.
